PRESS RELEASE

Forreston State Bank Hires Rampenthal as Director of Business Development

May 18, 2018

For Immediate Release: Forreston State Bank is pleased to announce that Kim Rampenthal recently joined the bank as Director of Business Development. In this newly created position, Kim will focus on finding the best banking solutions for existing customers and continuing the Bank's outreach into the local community.

Prior to coming to Forreston State Bank, Kim spent most of her career in social service and higher education, most recently at Highland Community College Foundation and Roosevelt University. She holds a doctorate degree from Loyola University Chicago.

Kim recently served as a Freeport Chamber of Commerce Ambassador and a volunteer tutor in Highland's English as a Second Language program. She completed HCC's Jo Daviess County Leadership Forum in 2014. She is a member of Freeport Noon Kiwanis. She and her husband Paul reside in Freeport.
